HOW DOES IT WORK?

Procedures are presented step-by-step, from the user's point of view. Every necessary interaction with a civil servant is considered a step.

For each procedure, the system presents a list of required steps and a summary showing the entities involved, expected results, requirements, minimum and maximum processing time and all legal bases.

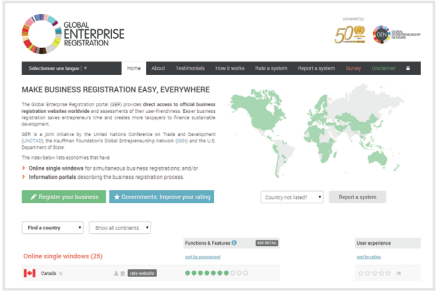
- Entity/office/officer in charge
- Result of the step
- Requirements (forms and documents)
- Cost
- Duration (minimum and maximum)
- Legal justification
- Authority certifying that the step is correctly described
- Entity/civil servant in charge of attending complaints

HOW CAN I INQUIRE OR COMPLAIN ABOUT A PROCEDURE OR A SPECIFIC STEP?

The contact data of the civil servants in charge of each step is published on the website. Feel free to contact them through phone or email for any inquiry.

For complaints, you can visit or contact by phone or email the "recourse" official whose data is published at the end of each step file. You can also file complaints through the system, by clicking on the "Report incorrect information" button.

Please send us your suggestions to make procedures easier by clicking on "Suggest a simplification".



A FIRST IN ASIA

27 countries worldwide are using the eRegulations system to present information on business-related procedures. Vietnam is the first country in Asia to adopt eRegulations. Thanks to this effort, it is now among the best ranked in the Global Enterprise Registration portal (www.ger.co), which lists official business registration websites worldwide and rates each website's user-friendliness.

eRegulations Vietnam is financed by the government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, with technical assistance from the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD).
